Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated

PLAINTIFF

vs.

CV521-076

SARPJ, LLC

DEFENDANT

ORIGINAL COMPLAINT—COLLECTIVE ACTION

COMES NOW Plaintiff Shelby Parden (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through her attorneys Lydia H. Hamlet and Josh Sanford of Sanford Law Firm, PLLC, and Matthew Herrington of Delong, Caldwell, Bridgers, Fitzpatrick & Benjamin, LLC, and for her Original Complaint—Collective Action against SARPJ, LLC (“Defendant”), she does hereby state and allege as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENTS

1. This is a collective action brought by Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against Defendant for violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. (the “FLSA”).

2. Plaintiff seeks declaratory judgment, monetary damages, liquidated damages, costs, and a reasonable attorneys’ fee, as a result of Defendant’s policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff sufficient wages under the FLSA within the applicable statutory limitations period.

3. Upon information and belief, within the three years prior to the filing of the Complaint, Defendant has willfully and intentionally committed violations of the FLSA as described, infra.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia has subject matter jurisdiction over this suit under the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this suit raises federal questions under the FLSA.

5. Defendant conducts business within the State of Georgia.

6. Venue lies properly within this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) and (c)(2), because the State of Georgia has personal jurisdiction over Defendant, and Defendant therefore “resides” in Georgia.

7. A substantial part of the acts complained of herein were committed in and had their principal effect against Plaintiff within the Waycross Division of the Southern District of Georgia. Therefore, venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

III. THE PARTIES

8. Plaintiff is an individual and resident of Camden County.

9. Defendant is a foreign limited liability company.

10. Defendant’s registered agent for service of process is Stan Barbour at 414 East 14th Street, Tifton, Georgia 31794.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

11. Defendant owns and operates multiple Papa John’s franchises throughout Georgia.

12. Defendant's annual gross volume of sales made or business done was not less than $500,000.00 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated) during each of the three calendar years preceding the filing of this Complaint.

13. During each of the three years preceding the filing of this Complaint, Defendant employed at least two individuals who were engaged in interstate commerce or in the production of goods for interstate commerce, or had employees handling, selling, or otherwise working on goods or materials that had been moved in or produced for commerce by any person, such as vehicles, fuel and goods or materials typically used in the fast-food industry.

14. Defendant employed Plaintiff within the three years preceding the filing of this lawsuit.

15. Specifically, Defendant employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid Delivery Driver from approximately October 2020 until April of 2021.

16. Defendant also employed other hourly-paid Delivery Drivers within the three years preceding the filing of this lawsuit.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendant directly hired Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers to work on its behalf, paid them wages and benefits, controlled their work schedules, duties, protocols, applications, assignments and employment conditions, and kept at least some records regarding their employment.

18. At all times material herein, Plaintiff has been entitled to the rights, protections and benefits provided under the FLSA.

19. Defendant classified Plaintiff as nonexempt from the overtime provisions of the FLSA.

20. Defendant also classified other Delivery Drivers as nonexempt from the overtime provisions of the FLSA.

21. Upon information and belief, Defendant applies or causes to be applied substantially the same employment policies, practices, and procedures to all Delivery Drivers at all of their locations, including policies, practices, and procedures relating to payment of minimum wages and reimbursement of automobile expenses.

22. Defendant is an “employer” within the meaning set forth in the FLSA, and was, at all times relevant to the allegations in this Complaint, Plaintiff’s employer, as well as the employer of the members of the proposed collective.

23. Plaintiff and the other Delivery Drivers at Defendant’s restaurants work “dual jobs.” Specifically, they deliver food to Defendant’s customers and receive tips, and they also work inside the store completing nontipped duties.

24. Defendant paid Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers less than minimum wage per hour for all hours worked. In other words, Defendant takes advantage of the “tip credit” provision of the FLSA pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 203(m) while Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers are out making deliveries.

25. Defendant requires Delivery Drivers to maintain and pay for operable, safe, and legally compliant automobiles to use in delivering Defendant’s pizza and other food items.

26. Defendant requires Delivery Drivers to incur and/or pay job-related expenses, including but not limited to automobile costs and depreciation, gasoline expenses, automobile maintenance and parts, insurance, financing, cell phone costs, and other equipment necessary for delivery drivers to complete their job duties.

27. Pursuant to such requirements, Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers purchased gasoline, vehicle parts and fluids, automobile repair and maintenance services, automobile insurance, suffered automobile depreciation, paid for automobile financing, and incurred cell phone and data charges all for the primary benefit of Defendant.

28. Defendant does not track Plaintiff's or other Delivery Drivers' actual expenses nor does Defendant keep records of all of those expenses.

29. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers for their actual expenses.

30. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at the IRS standard business mileage rate.

31. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at a reasonable approximation of Delivery Drivers' expenses.

32. Defendant reimburses Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at or around 27 cents per mile.

33. According to the Internal Revenue Service, the standard mileage rate for the use of a car during the relevant time periods has been as follows:

2018: 54.5 cents/mile
2019: 58 cents/mile
2020: 57.5 cents/mile
2021: 56 cents/mile

34. As a result of the automobile and other job-related expenses incurred by Plaintiff and other similarly situated Delivery Drivers, they were deprived of minimum wages guaranteed to them by the FLSA.

35. At all relevant times, Defendant has applied the same pay policies, practices, and procedures to all Delivery Drivers at their stores.

36. All of Defendant's Delivery Drivers were subject to the same reimbursement policy; received similar reimbursements; incurred similar automobile expenses; completed deliveries of similar distances and at similar frequencies; and were paid less than the applicable minimum wage rate before deducting unreimbursed vehicle costs.

37. Regardless of the precise amount of the per-delivery reimbursement at any given point in time, Defendant's reimbursement formula has resulted in an unreasonable underestimation of Delivery Drivers' automobile expenses throughout the recovery period, causing systematic violations of the minimum wage laws.

38. Defendant charges customers a delivery fee separate from the food charge, but the delivery charge is not paid to the driver per the Papa John's website (www.papajohns.com).

39. Plaintiff generally completed approximately 6 to 8 deliveries per hour while working as a Delivery Driver (averaging 7 deliveries per hour).

40. The typical delivery was anywhere from 1 to 24 miles away from the restaurant. Plaintiff estimates that the average delivery was 0.75 miles away (1.5 miles roundtrip).

41. Because Defendant paid Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers a gross hourly wage at or around the applicable minimum wage, and because Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers incurred unreimbursed automobile expenses and other job expenses, the Delivery Drivers “kicked back” to Defendant an amount sufficient to cause minimum wage violations. See 29 C.F.R. § 531.35.

42. In 2021, for example, Defendant under-reimbursed Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at a rate of 29 cents per mile (IRS standard rate of 56 cents minus the actual reimbursement of 27 cents).

43. Thus, while making deliveries (assuming 7 deliveries per hour at 1.5 miles per delivery), Plaintiff has consistently “kicked back” to Defendant approximately $3.05 per hour ($0.43 per delivery x 7 deliveries per hour).

44. Defendant knew or should have known that it was not paying Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers sufficient minimum wages.

45. Defendant has willfully failed to pay minimum wage to Plaintiff and similarly situated Delivery Drivers.

V. REPRESENTATIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

46. Plaintiff brings her claims for relief for violation of the FLSA as a collective action pursuant to Section 16(b) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all persons who were, are or will be employed by Defendant as similarly situated employees at any time within the applicable statute of limitations period, who are entitled to payment of the following types of damages:

- B. Liquidated damages; and
- C. Attorney’s fees and costs.

49. The relevant time period dates back three years from the date on which Plaintiff's Original Complaint—Collective Action was filed herein and continues forward through the date of judgment pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 255(a), except as set forth herein below.

50. The members of the proposed FLSA collective are similarly situated in that they share these traits:

- A. They were classified by Defendant as nonexempt from the minimum wage and overtime requirements of the FLSA;
- B. They had substantially similar job duties and requirements;
- C. They were required by Defendant to incur expenses to maintain vehicles for delivery of Defendant's products;
- D. They were subject to Defendant's common policy of not reimbursing Delivery Drivers for automobile expenses related to making deliveries for Defendant's restaurants;
- E. They did not receive a lawful minimum wage.

51. Plaintiff's claims are essentially the same as those of the putative collective.

52. Defendant's unlawful conduct is pursuant to a corporate policy or practice.

53. Plaintiff is unable to state the exact number of potential members of the FLSA collective but believes that the collective exceeds fifty (50) persons.

54. Defendant can readily identify the members of the collective, who are a certain portion of the current and former employees of Defendant.

55. The names, addresses and cell phone numbers of the FLSA collective action plaintiffs are available from Defendant, and a Court-approved Notice should be provided to the FLSA collective action plaintiffs via text message, email, and first class mail to their last known physical and electronic mailing addresses as soon as possible, together with other documents and information descriptive of Plaintiff's FLSA claim.

60. During the period relevant to this lawsuit, Defendant classified Plaintiff as nonexempt from the overtime requirements of the FLSA.

61. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff a lawful minimum wage for all hours worked.

62. Defendant's conduct and practices, as described above, were willful, intentional, unreasonable, arbitrary, and in bad faith.

63. By reason of the unlawful acts alleged herein, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for monetary damages, liquidated damages, and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, for all violations that occurred within the three years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

VII. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Collective Action Claim for Violation of the FLSA)

70. By reason of the unlawful acts alleged herein, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and all others similarly situated for monetary damages, liquidated damages, and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, for all violations that occurred within the three years prior to the filing of this Complaint.
